Oops I Made a Mistake

I would like to apologize to Taylor. On last months calendar I had her birthday listed as the 23rd, when it was actually the 18th! Sorry Taylor. I hope you had a wonderful day!!!

The Dragon's Fire Safety Rhyme

When the smoke alarm sounds, here's what you should do:

Leave your toys all behind,
'cause there's only one of you.

Get down and stay low,
crawling under the smoke,
Because breathing those fumes
in might make you choke.

If your clothes catch on fire,
don't run about,
"Stop drop and roll"
till the flames are all out.

Don't open a door if the handle feels hot.
Find another way out to your planned meeting spot.

Even when scared,
you must never hide,
And once you are out
don't go back inside!

Christmas Secret Santa

I have decided to do the secret Santa again this year. Sometime in the month of November the children will draw pictures and names to see which friend they get to purchase a gift for. As like last year the limit will be around $20. Gifts will be exchanged and opened during our Christmas party on December 23rd (with a hopeful visit from the big man himself!). The older "boys" will be included and they will open their gifts after school. Please let me know if you would or would not like to participate by November 14th.
